THE SOUTH.

BY FATHER BYAN.

Yes, give me the land,
Where the ruins are spread,
And the living dead light
On the hearts of the dead;

Yes, give me the land,
That has legends and lays,
That tell of the memories
Of long vanished days.

Yes, give me the land
That hath story and song,
To tell of the strife,
Of the right with the wrong;

Yes, give me the land
With a grave in each spot,
And names in the graves
That shall not be forgot.

Yes, give me the land
Of the wreck and the tomb;
There's grandeur in graves—
There's glory in gloom;

For out of the gloom
Future brightness is born,
As after the night,
Looms the sunrise of morn.

And the groves of the dead,
With the grass overgrown,
May yet form the footstool
Of Liberty's throne;

And each simple wreck
In the way-path of night,
Shall yet be a rock
In the temple of Right!

Licking River.

The following is the "Licking river bill," as passed the House of Representatives, for the purpose of improving the navigation of that stream:

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That the sum of seventy five thousand dollars be,

and the same are hereby appropriated, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purpose of removing the mill-dams and other obstructions to the navigation of the Licking river, from Salversville, in Magoffin county, to the mouth of said river.

§ 2. That M. D. Martin, of Harrison county, Moses Kirk, of Fleming, and William Myhrler, of Morgan, any two of whom may act, are appointed Commissioners, and are authorized to go upon said river, from its mouth to said Salversville, and examine the obstructions which may exist to the free and safe navigation of said river between said points; and whenever, in their judgment, any dam, rock, or other obstruction exists, and ought to be removed, they shall proceed, in the manner hereafter described, to remove said obstruction or obstructions from said river.

§ 3. The said Commissioners may negotiate with the owner or owners of any mill-dam or dams, whose interests are to be injuriously affected by the removal thereof, and agree upon the amount of damages, if any,

to be paid therefor; but if such agreement cannot be made, the said Commissioners may apply to the Clerk of the County Court of the county in which the mill of such dam or dams may be, and sue out a writ of ad quod damnum, to compound the said dam or dams, and have the damages assessed by a fair and impartial jury, as land is condemned and damages assessed for turnpike roads now in force.

§ 4. The said Commissioners shall enter upon the discharge of their duties in the month of May or June next, and shall use diligence in the performance of the work. They shall severally receive, for each day that they are actually employed, as compensation, the sum of five dollars; but before they enter upon their duties, each one, in the county where he resides, shall enter into bond, with sufficient security, for the faithful performance thereof.

§ 5. The Auditor of Public Accounts, upon the requisition of the Commissioners, accompanied with a certified copy of their bond, is authorized to draw his warrant upon the Treasury for such sums of money as may be necessary to pay their contracts and expenses, not exceeding the amount above appropriated;

and a vacancy in the commission, from any cause may be filled by appointment of the Governor.

§ 6. They shall make a full report of all their acts and doings at the next session of the Legislature.

§ 7. This act to take effect from its passage.

Statistics of Harrison, Pendleton and Robertson counties.

We take the following from the Auditor's Report, for 1868, which we received last week. From the report before us, we are unable to state how much the people of this or any other county is worth, under the equalization law. It has not been put down.

"Barrett's" overtook everything. First try "Barrett's".

The Mobile negroes take kindly to politics, although the white men of their party sometimes interfere to prevent the exercise of their talent. Just before the recent municipal election there was a negro caucus in a church, where one of these ardent politicians thus delivered himself: "Use a Radical, I want to see a shorse enuf, old time, sway-back Radical citizen lected to dis offs of Mare! I tells you, enuf folks, mind what yo' doin'; don't you lect nary a carpet sacketer." Vigorous twitches at the colored orator's coat tail at this juncture caused a slight interruption, but looking behind him at the white manager of the post-war with a glance of virtuous indignation, he continued: "Lef go! lef go! you's at your old tricks, trying to get into offs by swingin' unto a nigger's coat tail; but it won't do; we hoso yer; we's bin knowin' yer to our cos' for a long time; so I say, lect some home-made Radikile—de genigwine thing—not a—." "Won't somebody put that d—d fool down?" was yelled out behind him, and before that negro could say "Jack Robinson," over he went, heels above his head, off the platform.

CYNTHIANA, Feb. 1, 1869.

EDITOR NEWS:

Sir:—In the last issue of your paper is a paragraph in which it is stated that "The revenue laws MAKE provision for a deduction of the assessment of the capacity tax against distillers on account of loss of time caused by accidents to machinery," &c.

In making the above statement—I deem it to the interest of the district to state—that there is evidently a typographical error or omission which entirely reverses the sense of the decision made by the Commissioner—intended to be given.

It should have read "the revenue laws make no provision for a deduction of the assessment of the capacity tax against distillers on account of loss of time caused by accidents to machinery."

The decision having been erroneously published in many papers, I think it due, and to the interest of the several distillers in this district, that you publish a correct rendition of it.

Respectfully,

J. C. SAYERS,

Assessor Sixth District, Kentucky.

CYNTHIANA, Ky., Jan. 29, 1869.

Mr. Editor:—It has been my intention for two or three weeks past, to drop you a short communication with reference to the exorbitant charges made by the Kentucky Central Railroad company, on way rates for freight, which are now being exacted. Some people denounce the officers of the road and the road itself, and work themselves into a terrible fuming over this monopoly; but no relief will come to us should blowing be kept up until doomsday. This company work under a charter granted to them by the State Legislature, and the people elect the members of that body, and of them and them only should we expect relief. The ignorant lawmakers who granted the charter under which this road is working, are the men to condemn—they are the people to hold up in derision and execration—they are the genry who stand by and see us robbed and pilfered, and to that body you must look for a remedy. Mr. M. D. Martin, our worthy representative in the lower House, is ready to give all the aid and assistance he can control, to enact a law regulating and equalizing the way rates now exacted by railroads, in Kentucky, and when a sufficient amount of interest is taken in the passage of such a bill through the Legislature, by those gentlemen, who so anxiously desire a reduction in the railroad tariff rates, and they will give their personal attention to this motion and go to Frankfort and go to the members of the Legislature, a change can be effected—and at no other place can this monopoly be made to reduce its charges. They are in the hands of the people—if the monopoly trample on the rights of individuals, the people permit it, and they and the Legislature must be blamed. That the exorbitant charges on the Central railroad, is a great evil, is apparent to every man, and if the Democratic majority in the Legislature, will not give us a remedy, then the people must submit to it, for who else can help us?

"Barrett's" don't stain the skin or linen. Mrs. Boyd, of Kentucky. On Sunday morning a female giving the name of Mrs. Boyd, of Kentucky, arrived at the Everett House and was shown a room. Nothing in particular was observed until yesterday morning, when her strange disappearance caused Mr. Brown, chief clerk, to send to her room. Here was found nothing—but a female infant six months of age, nicely dressed d, and warmly tucked in bed. It was crying lustily, and Brown, in true paternal style, temporarily pacified the deserted stranger, and handed her over to the tender care of Officer Gordon—wet nurse of the department—by whom she was taken to the "Orphans' asylum, on Tenth and O'Fallon streets, the home for waifs. In a satchel was found a note bearing the following message: "I would like for some one to take the child and adopt it. J. G. and D. H. would make good parents. God bless Sadie, the child."

Who the mother was, where she came from, or where she has gone to, no one can tell.—[St. Louis Times, 26th ult.

The holidays are now past, but still your friends expect and are willing to receive gifts. Married men, if you would like for your better half to meet you at night with a sweet kiss and snuggling face and young lovers, if you want to receive a hearty welcome and an encouraging smile, call on J. D. Motches, No. 583 Madison St., Covington, Ky., and select from his stock of jewelry, a nice present for your wife or sweetheart.

"Barrett's" never fails.

Speaking of life and death, we should remember that with every beat of our pulse we have lived a moment longer, and have a moment less to live.

My pulse is the clock of my life. It shows how my moments are flying. It marks the departure of time. And tells me how fast I am dying.

While on a visit to Covington we called to see Aik & Kimmom's cigar manufactory and wholesale tobacco dealers, 329 Scott street, between 4th and 5th, and we had the pleasure of indulging in the fragrance of one of their Havana cigars, and we say to the citizens of our vicinity who at Covington, it would be to their interest to call on them before purchasing cigars and tobacco elsewhere. They are also agents for the finest Virginia tobacco.

Near Owensboro, Ky., a few days since, a negro brutally outraged the person of a white lady. The negro was soon afterward lodged in jail; but, last Wednesday night, a mob broke into the jail, took the negro out and hung him.

David Ammerman, of Bourbon county, informs us that a chicken will live from eight to ten years.

THE MAMMOTH CAVE.—Extract from a private letter.—We groped about for many hours in this wonderful place. I never saw anything like it. The freaks of nature displayed here are very strange, and strike the beholder with awe. But the air in some parts of the cave is close and stifling, and when we came out I found myself saddled with a terrible fever, which entirely prostrated me. The physician had never seen a case like it before, and no remedy he prescribed seemed to do the least good. My life was despaired of. Mrs. Wilson, with whom I resided, had in the house a bottle of Plantation Bitters, and she insisted I should try it, for she said she knew it to be a certain cure in all cases of fever, delirium, ague, dyspepsia &c. I had but little faith, but finally consented to try it as a last resort. In less than three hours after the first dose the fever left me; in two days I was sitting up, and before Saturday night I was as well as ever. I tell you all this that you may know how to act in any case of fever, or any similar disease. I firmly believe the Plantation Bitters saved my life. In my next I will tell you about the cave in detail.

A. J. P.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price.

THE SANSAPARILLA FIGGERS OF YUCATAN.—This singular set of people are descended from the ancient Aztecs of Southern Mexico, and still retain some of the peculiarities which Stevens and Prescott gave of their ancestors. Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., employ a small army of them in digging sansaparilla root. Provided with narrow spades, a coil of rope, and a bag of water, they are ready for the forest where the wild banana furnishes them with food, and the thick-leaved trees their only shelter. Few of those who find themselves rejuvenated by this product, know how much they are indebted to the toil of these humble laborers, who dig health for thousands of Dr. Ayer's patrons, while they sometimes lose their own.

Talk on "Change." The long looked for reaction in the money market is about to take place, as we observe a decided improvement in financial head centers. There is not that stringency in the market now, as was manifest in the early part of January; and we confidently predict that, before a fortnight passes over us, accommodations, from the "money kings" can be had on more reasonable terms than has been effected in the past six months. An easing up of the "thumb-screws," would at this time, help things amazingly.

At Paris, on last Monday, stock of all kinds brought remunerative prices. We observed an improvement in the prices of good work horses, over sales of one month previous at the same place. We also observed a decided improvement in cattle.

Miles are not so buoyant as they have been, and we report them only "so-so." There has not, however, been any decline, yet the market has a downward tendency.

Sheep are in fair request at the river, and we report common to choice lots from 2.50 to 3.50 per cental gross.

Hogs are still in good demand, and prices for good ones, range as high as 12 dollars per 100 lbs gross.

The grain market is still inactive and depressed, without any speculative tendency. White wheat is held at 2 dollars, without any buyers. No. 1 red can be sold about 1 dollar and 70 cents. Rye is in moderate request at 1 dollar and 35 cents. Corn is scarce, with a limited number of buyers.

Flour is almost dropping, and the market is almost inundated. The best can be bought at 8 and 10 dollars per barrel. Coffee and sugar, and groceries generally, are without any material change as to price, though the tendency is of a downward nature.

Cattle dull, yet without any alteration in price. The poultry trade has stiffened up somewhat, and we quote turkeys from 1 to 1 dollar and 25 cents a piece. Chickens, 3.50 to 4.50 per dozen.

Potatoes are dull at 70 to 80c per bushel. Clover seed is advancing, and we now quote it at 16c per lb. Timothy is firmer, without any change in price. It can be bought at 3 dollars and 25c per bushel.

The only change in hides is in dried flint, which are now selling at 18.25c per pound. We quote: Green, per pound, 9.10c; wet salted per pound, 11.15c; dry salted per pound, 16.00c; dry flint, 18.25c; sheep pelts each, 40c 00.

A CARD.

TO TH. A. KELLER WHISKY TRADE.

THE KELLER DISTILLERY.—THIS Distillery, in Midway, began operations on Saturday last, and from the parties interested, we feel justified in saying that its brand of Whisky, will stand second to none in Kentucky. Mr. Keller, the partner, who gives his personal attention and his name to the Distillery, is a son of the well-known Keller of Harrison, probably, the most celebrated distiller of his day. The new Distillery is fitted out with the most approved apparatus for making whiskey, and although it is too soon to speak of its product from actual experiment, yet the reputation of the partners as whiskey men lead us to the belief that they will make none but the best.—Kentucky Gazette.

We understand that Messrs. HINDE, DRAKE & CO., No. 77 Pearl street, of this city, are partners in this Distillery, and contracts can be made with them.—New York paper.

A. Keller, now deceased, commenced the business of distilling "Bourbon Whisky," near Cynthia, Harrison county, Ky., in the year 1810, and continued in the business using his own name "A. Keller" as his trade brand up to the year 1861, when he sold his distillery including the "A. Keller" brand, his old mill and all apparatus pertaining thereto to J. A. Cook & Co., and said J. A. Cook & Co. manufactured the "A. Keller Bourbon" up to the year 1866, when they sold half of said distillery to T. V. Ashbrook, and since that time the same kind of Bourbon has been manufactured under the firm name of Cook & Ashbrook, and branded "A. Keller." Mr. A. Keller, jr., whom Messrs. Hinde, Drake & Co. have advertised as partner for the purpose of branding their whiskey "A. Keller" is a son of A. Keller, sr., and only about 18 years old, and has no experience of distilling of any kind. We understand Messrs. Hinde, Drake & Co. employ A. Keller, jr., upon the following terms: "One thousand dollars per year for three years and to give his personal attention at their distillery two months the first year, three months the second year, and the whole of the third year."

The distillery which Hinde, Drake & Co. advertise as the "Keller Distillery" was formerly the "Hind, Guthrie & Co." and "A. Buford," and is situated at Midway, in Woodford county, 7th District of Kentucky—some thirty miles from the original "A. Keller Distillery."

We insert the above notice to inform our friends and the Bourbon Whisky Trade generally that they may not be deceived in purchasing "A. Keller Bourbon" as it is only manufactured by us near Cynthia, Harrison county, 6th District, Kentucky, and Messrs. Ives, Beecher & Co., of New York city, are our only authorized agents, for the sale of "A. Keller" whisky.

LOCAL MATTER.

LOOK HERE!—We have received a new JOB PRESS, new DISPLAY TYPE, and new material of every description. We are now prepared to execute all kinds of Job Work—such as Circulars, Bill Heads, Cards, Posters, &c.—in every style, and in the neatest possible manner, and at the lowest price. Give us a call.

A. Williamson, requests us to say that he would be obliged if all the parties indebted to him, would come forward and settle their accounts. He wants money to pay his debts.

John Lang, a distiller at Payne's Depot, informs us that he is having splendid luck just now with his mashes—and that he is making three gallons and forty-one hundredths of a gallon from a bushel of corn. Who can beat it?

There has been needed upon the mail route from Lexington to Lexington, three mail agents. The necessity has been supplied by the Postmaster General, who we are pleased to learn has appointed our old friend, Henry Jourdan. Our faithful friends, Ma lock, Smith and Jourdan, will hereafter continue as accommodating to the public as heretofore.

Last Friday, a party of gentlemen from Paris met the same from Cynthiana, and had a rare tit-bit of sport in beholding about four teen chicken fights. The people from Cynthiana are off tripping and having whipped twice of the fourteen fights that were made.

Handsome bedroom sets, washrooms, tables, chairs and lounges, at Keller, Welch & Co.

The "Fennell Cornet Band" is now named "Fennell Cornet Band," after its leader. It is one of the best bands in Kentucky.

The Cheapest Property in Cynthiana.

Any person who will call at this office can learn where they may purchase a new house and lot for $1250—this is now rented for $1100 and is a $150 per year. Possession can be had by the 15th of March or sooner if desired.

Some sixteen or eighteen years ago, a large number of people—white and black—were in Broadwell's Cross Roads, in this county, to witness some chicken cock fighting. The day passed off as smooth as days usually did at that time. But it was contrary to law for such sport to be indulged in within the State of Kentucky, and a warrant was issued against the whole party, by the magistrates of that precinct, and brought before them and fined. Two or three white men, together with some fifty negroes, were unable to pay their fines, and were punished with thirty-five lashes, well laid on their bare backs by the constables.

Remember we sell goods for cash only at Keller, Welch & Co.

A. Williamson, opposite the Adams' Express office, in this city, is now fairly installed in the boot and shoe, hat and cap, and notion trade. His store looks neat and clean, and bears an air of thrift about it. His prices are very reasonable, and he assures us that everything in his line, will be sold twenty-five per cent cheaper than has been customary in this market. All he asks is a fair chance, and he feels confident that he will be able to crawl from under the cloud spread over him. Give him a call.

DOCTORS IN THE SIXTH DISTRICT OF KENTUCKY.—From an examination of the records in the United States Assessor's office, we learn that there are 160 practicing physicians in the Sixth Congressional District of Kentucky, as follows:

Kenton county, 40; Boone, 21; Harrison, 25; Bracken, 25; Carroll, 18; Trimble, 6; Campbell, 29; Grant, 19; Pendleton, 14; Gallatin, 7. Total, 196.

Covington has 82 licensed physicians, and New Port 14, which are included in the above statement. The counties of Carroll, Gallatin and Trimble must be very healthy, judging from the small number of doctors they support.

Jno. S. Day sold on Monday last at Paris, 34 head of mules at $90.20 per head.

Barrett's, Premium Hair Restorative.

We notice that our friend, Dr. Jno. A. Blades, has located in St. Louis, and has gone into the whisky trade largely. His energy and enterprise will carry him through, as he has a splendid article of liquor. He has a variety of brands from this State, among which we might mention that of Mr. Conner, of this county; Bowen, of Bourbon, and Howard Barnes, of Montgomery. These brands are among the very best in this country, and every other country where good liquors are known, and where good judges can be found. We hope friend Blades will establish a good business for himself in that goodly city.

Dr. McBride has been found guilty of dealing faro, at Lexington, and fined $600. In default of payment he was sent to the workhouse to work out the fine at fifty cents per day.

The Lexington Gazette makes the following announcement under the head of birth: "To the wife of General Basil W. Duke, a son—Calvin Morgan.

Shannon & Co., have erected a lamp-post in front of their establishment in Main street, and have a gas lamp on it. They propose to light the city for less money with this style of light than it can be done by a gas company.

The Fox House, in Paris, was sold on Monday last, to Pullen & Brent, for $11,850—a good price.

Jno. M. Kintzogh, Esq., of this county, died at his residence, on January 21, 1869, aged about 63 years.

Lexington is going to have a velocipede race.

Hon. Thornton F. Marshall, of Bracken county, is a candidate for the Legislature.

Furniture, queensware, glassware, and table oil-cloths, at Keller, Welch & Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of the "Smith House," in this city, have been married ten years last Tuesday. We understand they had a tin wedding, and are receiving tin ware in unusual quantities. We hear of other tin-weddings about to come off in Cynthiana.

Groff, Taylor & Co., sold their business house in Paris, last Saturday, to Ford & Osmond, of that city, for $15,000. They have disposed of only one-half of the lot from Main street back and will sell shortly the other half, on which is erected a large brick warehouse.

Keller, Welch & Co., sell all goods in their line for CASH exclusively.

The crowd in attendance at Paris, last Monday, was large, and sales very extensive. Cattle brought big prices, and were much in demand. Mules were said to be slightly lower than the month previous. No demand for horses, with prices nominal.

Hon. Thomas L. Jones, of this district, presented to the House of Congress a memorial from the distillers of this and the adjoining counties, a king for an amendment to the Revenue Laws.

Colonel Sayers, Assessor for the Sixth District of Kentucky, called at our office last Monday. The Colonel is looking well.

Mr. P. Smith, local editor of the "Vulksblatt," Cincinnati, was in Cynthiana, last Monday.

J. Reneker, jr., purchased two head of cattle, extra fine, from H. Martin, of this county, for which he paid 8 cents. They weighed 4,135 pounds.

The Merchants' Exchange, at Cincinnati, have established sixty-eight, instead of seventy pounds of corn, in the ears, as a bushel. Our farmers will claim the same.

A grand ball will be given on Tuesday evening next, by the Fenian Brotherhood. It will take place at the Smith House. One of the finest string bands in Cincinnati have been engaged for the occasion.

S. T. Lydick, of Fayette, sold twenty head of two-year-old cattle, last week, to John Kennedy, of Bourbon, for $75 per head—about 7 cents.

Look this way! Coal! coal!! I will sell by the cart loads 25 to 50 cents less than any coal dealer in Cynthiana, and at same rates to country trade, and furnish better coal than anybody. The circumstances in which I am placed gives me the advantage over any other dealer in the city; I mean what I say. Come and try me. Office at the Railroad Depot.

H. D. FRISBIE, Cynthiana, January 11, 1869.

The Lexington Statesman says: "At the present writing the wheat, rye and barley looks well. Comparatively a small quantity of wheat was sown in the Bluegrass section last fall, but much more barley and rye than for some years. A good many farmers are inquiring for spring barley, intending to try it this year. Hemp will be raised to a greater extent this year than for a long time. But the great crop for this year will, with a favorable season, be corn. The demand for this article is great, and the price is so great, and the prospect for a greater demand than ever before for it this fall, will induce our farmers to plant a very large area in corn.

The Paris Kentuckian of Wednesday, says one of the most brilliant weddings ever given in Kentucky, took place on Tuesday evening at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Sam Clay, of that county. The bridegroom was Cassius M. Clay, Jr., youngest son of Hon. B. J. Clay, and the bride Miss Sue Clay, a most accomplished young lady and the heiress of the county.

Wm. T. Hearne, whose farm of 144 acres, lays near Newtown, Scott county, was sold on Saturday, the 23rd ult., for $195 per acre.

The Southern Hotel, Lexington, is one of the best kept houses in the State, and we advise those going to Lexington, and who want to live in the good old fashioned Kentucky style, to put up at the establishment. Messrs. Wooley & McCormick, are the urbane and popular landlords, and they do everything in their power to contribute to the comfort and enjoyment of their guests.

WHISKY TRADE.—We take the following from the Paris papers: The tax of $4 per barrel (about 10 cents per gallon) on whisky, brings considerable revenue to the government. T. J. Megibben informs us that his last monthly return of this tax was $5,450.

George Hugh is exerting himself to see how pure an article of the old-fashioned copper Bourbon can be made, and in order to do this he is using only two barrels per day. From the specimen his storekeeper, Colonel A. L. Taupen, has shown us, we judge the whisky of old that won the name of this county was not superior to Hugh's.

The law requires that the amount of whisky in no class B warehouse shall be reduced to 1,000 barrels, unless the tax be paid. In consequence of this, W. W. Massie has lately paid $12,000 in taxes.

The head of the engine at Buckner & Bedford's distillery having given way beneath the weight, stops their work for the present week. However, the revenue laws make provision for a deflection of the assessment of the capacity tax against distillers on account of loss of time caused by accidents to machinery.

A new distillery, being erected by Messrs. Howard & Bowen, at Rudolph's Mills, will be completed soon, and will mash 400 bushels of grain per day.

Colonel Traddock, of the Paris Kentuckian, enters a serious complaint against us, and says that we, the editor of the Cynthiana News, is an "impudent widower," because we have advertised in our paper for a young girl between the ages of 13 and 20—and that we propose to furnish her with a comfortable home, &c. This advertisement was inserted in the News for Col. Traddock. He intimated to us one day that he did not like to advertise himself—and that it would look better in a neighboring paper than in his—as the young girl was intended for him. And besides that we are weary with his single condition, and feel an anxiety for him, not common for humanity to exhibit. He is a bachelor worthy in every respect, and we want him to get married and go to housekeeping, for three reasons: First, Because he is petted to death by ladies with marriageable daughters.

Second, Because he is invited to all the evening parties, and told to drop in just when it is convenient.

Third, Because he has lived in "clover" all his days, and should he die, his grave will be strewn with flowers by all the pretty girls who could not entrain him.

Judge Day, sold to J. Reneker, jr., on Tuesday, two calves which weighed 4,250 pounds, for seven and three quarter cents per pound.

We are under obligations to Hawkins' String Band, for a Serenade. Long may they wave.

John E. Records, Esq., a prominent lawyer of Falmouth, died in that place last Sunday. He represented Pendleton, in the Legislature, and was once county attorney.

Last Tuesday evening, Capt. John Kimbrough, one of the faithful, arrived in Cynthiana, from his home in Texas. He has not been in Cynthiana, since before the War. He is welcome.
